The 2010 Farmstead Stampede features two organizations:
 Friends of the Deanna Rose Children's Farmstead and Gift of Life.

FRIENDS OF THE FARMSTEAD

With the Kansas City Family Farm slowly disappearing, the Children's Farmstead was established in 1976, and was re-named in 1985 in honor of the first Overland Park Police Officer killed in the line of duty as the Deanna Rose Children's Farmstead. Deanna Rose's Legacy is to preserve the Farm Legacy so children in the city can learn facts of life from the charm of the farm. Children treasure such memories as gathering eggs, the smell of hay, and learning first hand where milk comes from. Today, the Farmstead is twelve acres of family fun, education and entertainment located in Overland Park, KS.

Gift of Life empowers area teens to share their decision about organ and tissue donation through the Life Savers classroom program offered in area high schools. Life Mentors are also available to provide encouragement and support to those waiting for a life-saving transplant, living donors and their families. The mission statement for Gift of Life is to build awareness of the critical need for organ and tissue donation, and provides assistance to transplant patients, their families and living donors.
